Joseph Marino Received the Service to Agriculture Award

At the 2017 annual Gloucester County Board of Agriculture Awards Banquet and Business Meeting, Joseph Marino was honored for his service to the Agricultural Industry.

Joe Marino is a fourth generation farmer in Gloucester County New Jersey. He graduated Delaware Valley University in 1995 with a BS in Agribusiness.

He worked to position Sun Valley Orchards for the future, focusing on mandating strict guidelines for quality standards. Currently Sun Valley has grown to be a 3000-acre fresh market produce operation under his leadership.

Ray Samulis Receives Farm Bureau Award

Professor Ray Samulis received the New Jersey Farm Bureau Distinguished Service award in 2017 at the Annual Farm Bureau Convention in November at the Weston Hotel, Princeton. Ray has served as the RCE County Agricultural Agent in Burlington County for over 40 years, specializing in commercial vegetable production, blueberry culture, and tree fruit.

SANTO SAYS...

"Peaches from Circle M Farms just plain taste better. Their size and color are what your customers want, and their flavor is the icing on the cake.

That's because our orchards are tended with care and attention, and their fruit is left on the tree to ripen naturally until they reach their optimum sweetness. Then they are picked by hand, taste-tested by me to ensure quality, and packed gently into 25 lb. volume boxes for shipping. Single layer cartons are available upon request.

Circle M's 30 varieties of peaches and nectarines are known for their sweetness and their luscious color. They look as good as they taste.

Discriminating customers appreciate our white flesh peaches because of their lower acid levels and supremely sweet taste.

Add it all up: Peaches from Circle M Farms are fresher and sweeter, picked by hand when their time has come, and packed with care for a longer shelf life.

Yellow, white and donut peaches and yellow and white nectarines are available early July to late September."
